INTERNATIONAL PRIZE FOR ARCHITECTURAL RESTORATION “FASSA BORTOLO DOMUS RESTORATION AND PRESERVATION” VIII Edition – 2021 competition notice

Art. 1 - INSTITUTION OF THE PRIZE

The International Architectural Restoration Prize entitled “Fassa Bortolo Domus Restoration and Preservation”, conceived and promoted in 2010 by Fassa S.r.l., owner of the “Fassa Bortolo” brand, and by the Ferrara University Department of Architecture to celebrate its twentieth anniversary, was established for the purpose of rewarding and promoting to the public at large architectural restoration works that have managed to best interpret the preservation principles shared by the scientific community, including through the use of contemporary forms of expression.

Art. 2 – THE PRIZE

Due to the required specific business skills in this area, the Prize is aimed at identifying not only the designers but also the contractor companies that have carried out the restoration work. The prize is held annually and is divided into two sections alternated every 2 years as follows:

- entries submitted as “Built projects”: designers from both the private or public sector and the restoration companies that completed the works will be awarded Gold and Silver medals;
- entries submitted as “Undergraduate, Graduate, Master, PhD and Graduate School Theses”: Gold and Silver medals will be appointed to Undergraduate, Graduate, Master, PhD and Graduate School Theses considered by the jury to be award-worthy for specific aspects.

In this 2021 Eighth competition the competing category will be “Built Projects”. The total prize money for this 2021 competition is 10,000.00 euro, divided as follows:

- a prize of Euros 5.000,00 (and a gold medal) to the designer or the design team awarded as winners of the Prize “Fassa Bortolo Domus Restoration and Preservation”;
- two awards of Euros 2.500,00 each (and silver medals) to the runners-up. Moreover, the Jury could decide to identify additional entries worthy of “Special Mentions” and consequently award the Prizes in a different way. The Jury also has the option of setting up a Shortlist of the Prize to highlight those deserving projects which have not been included in the pool of the prize-winning and mentioned candidates.

Art. 3 - THE FASSA BORTOLO SPECIAL PRIZE

From the Fifth Edition, the new Special Prize Fassa Bortolo has been introduced to award those following the principles of conservation of heritage, of sustainability and of high quality architecture who have used solutions from the Fassa Bortolo Integrated System or main related Systems properly. It is possible to submit the project to the Special Prize sending the required documentation (see Art. 6 item h), in order to access the list of selected projects. The prize money for the winning project is € 3.000,00.

Art. 4 - TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ENTRIES

For the 2021 competition, the entries for the Prize in the “Built Projects” division may be submitted by individual professionals or temporary grouping, by architectural-engineering firms and by the contractor companies that completed the restoration work. Each individual candidate, contractor company or group

The Jury decision will be mainly based on the evaluation of these panels.

Art. 7 - SUBMISSION OF ENTRY DOCUMENTS

In order to avoid both the environmental load due to packaging and transport of the entry documents and any inconvenience in particular at customs (for extra EU countries and Switzerland), which have often led to high freights, all the required documents as set in Art. 6 has to be sent in digital format through e-mail before ~~20/12/2021~~ NEW DEADLINE JANUARY 10th 2022. All the entry documents have to be sent (using file-delivery systems) to the e-address: premiorestauro@unife.it.

Failure to meet this deadline for submission of the documents, failure to meet the entry requirements or failure to comply with the instructions specified in Art. 6 of this competition notice in regards to the contents will lead to the entry being rejected by the Jury. Payment of a registration fee is required for participation in the Prize in order to cover the technical costs borne by the Prize organizer in managing files and printing their contents on high resolution photographic paper assembled on rigid boards for evaluation by the jury and subsequent exhibition. The entrance fee amount to €120,00, which must be paid no later than ~~20/12/2021~~ NEW DEADLINE JANUARY 10th 2022 in the way that will be indicated by email after registration. For more details, consult the official website of the Award (www.premiorestauro.it) in the section dedicated to registration.

Art. 8 – THE JURY

The Jury’s decision will be final and not subject to appeal. The Jury appointed in 2020 by the Department of Architecture of the University of Ferrara is in charge of the evaluation process for the two-year period of the specific edition, having been called to express itself for both the “Undergraduate, Graduate, Master, PhD and Graduate School Theses” division in 2020 and for the “Built Projects” division related to the present competition in 2021.

Art. 9 - NOTIFICATION OF THE RESULTS

The outcomes of the selection with the identification of the winners and the assignment of honourable mentions during the eighth edition, year 2021, will be communicated to all participants by March 2022; the award proceedings and the reasons for the award and the honourable mentions will also be published by
